COMMUNITY RELATIONS AND PROGRAM MANAGER
SR-26; BU:13

Duties Summary:

Plans and executes a wide range of public informational activities encompassing a variety of community relations, customer service, marketing programs and services and business development, to include internal and external communication about the hospitals activities in coordination with Hawaii Health Systems Corporation; maintains effective working relationships with members of the media, community groups, and key individuals in the public and private sectors; and performs other related duties as required.

Distinguishing Characteristics:

This position independently carries out a variety of public relations and informational activities relating to hospital functions and programs; directs and coordinates information-dissemination; develops and implements policies and procedures and programs to enhance community relations. This position is responsible for executing informational, educational and interpretive activities regularly involving the most difficult, complex and variable hospital functions and programs, due to their highly sensitive and controversial nature, social/economic impact and concerns with most pressing issues and problems and similar factors.

Examples of Duties:

Plans and executes information, educational and interpretive programs; writes news releases, articles, bulletins, radio and television scripts and speeches; speaks before business and other community groups, delivers talks over television and radio; originates or adapts written materials from personal interviews and various printed sources; plans layout and design and arranges for printing of informational material; arranges for photographs and other illustrative material, plans and designs exhibits and demonstrations for public display; prepares annual and special reports; coordinates hospital participation in community projects; evaluates and responds to a variety of complaints from the public, involving research, interpretation and explanation of hospital policies, programs and operations; establishes and maintains effective relationship with press, radio and television executives and with other business and community representatives; plans and administers employee communications programs; prepares fact-finding studies and surveys and performs staff assignments of an administrative nature.

Knowledges and Abilities Required:

Knowledge of the principles and practices of administration, including program planning and evaluation techniques; publicity methods and media; principles and techniques used in writing informational material; techniques used in preparing and editing copy for printing; local organizations, regulatory organizations (i.e., JCAHO), State and Federal Laws, functions and operations.

Ability to plan, organize and coordinate the community relations programs; interpret laws, rules and regulations; speak effectively before individuals and groups; write clearly, edit and prepare materials for presentation; direct the accurate and concise presentation of facts; establish and maintain effective relationships with media representatives, administrative staff; the public and others.

---

This is the first class specifications for the class, COMMUNITY RELATIONS AND PROGRAM MANAGER.

DATE APPROVED: June 6, 2006

JANICE WAKATSUKI
VP/Director of Human Resources