NOTICE OF AMENDMENT TO EXEMPTION FROM CHAPTER 103D, HRS, CONTRACT

1. TO: Chief Procurement Officer
2. FROM: Arthur Sampaga Jr RN, Cardiovascular Supervisor
Department/Division/Agency

3. Name of Contractor: Siemens 4. P.E. Reference No. EX 08-005

5. Description of goods, services, or construction:
Axiom Sensis Hemodynamic monitoring system is a state of the art equipment needed to perform Cardiac Catheterization procedures. The Sensis system records all types of hemodynamic studies with a built in Syngo database for long term storage of patient's examinations including measurements, waveforms, event logs, and flowsheet. The complete software is for all-pediatric / adult, right/left heart, angio/valvular hemodynamic examinations including functionality for calculations and etc.

6. Scope of work for the contract is revised as follows:
Necessary accessories for thermodilution cardiac output measurements and respiration modules in combination with AXIOM Sensis XP. Also, the DICOM HI/RIS worklist reporting will integrate with the upcoming RIS/PAC systems within the Imaging patient data files/ information systems. And the mobile barcode reader enable the automatic input of used, coded material in cath lab tracking expenditures and charges thus increasing revenue of the department.

Original Contract Price: $171,225 w/o tax Amended Contract Price: $197,532.37 w/tax

7. Reason: This/These amendment(s) are necessary because:
Additional options (hardware & software) were needed to fully compliment this system in order to function to it's maximum monitoring capabilities. Initial base cost did not include all options and tax.
